1. The deep-sea fishing trawlers are controlled by the state fishing enterprise Dalmor. The sides and funnels of these trawlers are painted black. The name of the port of registration appears on the stern; the trawler's name, on the bow.
2. Fishing cutters are controlled by the state fishing enterprises Arka or Barka. The cutters are painted a greyish-lemon yellow.

The marking on the roof of the wheel-house is exactly the same as on the bow and is made in order to enable aircraft to identify the cutter at sea in the event of an accident. The cutters have the name of the enterprise to which they belong painted on their stern, and sometimes their own name. The length of the cutters are 12 to 24 meters, with a tonnage of 8 to 16 tons.

3. The abbreviations of names of ports are as follows:

Gdy - Gdynia	Wsg - Wschodnie Gorki
Hel - Hel	Dar - Darlowo
Spi - Spiewowo	Leb - Leba
Ust - Ustka	Kol - Kolobrzeg
Wla - Wladyslawowo-Wielka Wies

4. In Gdynia there are approximately 110 fishing cutters; in Wladyslawowo, about 80; and in Hel, about 60.
